

to help Haiti rebuild from this current tragedy. However, this recovery cannot be sustainable if Haitians lack the necessary skills to participate in the process.

While investments are made to rebuild and expand Haiti's university system, it would be counterproductive if, in the meantime, we allow Haiti to fall even further behind in educational attainment. My legislation will not only provide immediate relief to those struggling students who saw their hopes squandered on January 12th, but will also help ensure a more robust, long term recovery.

I ask my colleagues to support this legislation and urge the House Leadership to bring it swiftly to the House floor for consideration.

HONORING REVEREND HERMAN C. MCCRAY, JR.

HON. KENDRICK B. MEEK

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 28, 2010

Mr. MEEK of Florida. Madam Speaker, I am pleased to recognize and honor Reverend Herman C. McCray, Jr., an anchor throughout the Palm Beach County community who has continued to be a living example of the ideals of community service. On September 25, 2010, the Palm Beach County Board of County Commissioners will hold a Bridge Dedication Ceremony for the "Herman McCray Jr. Bridge."

A native Floridian, Reverend McCray was born in West Palm Beach and graduated from Roosevelt High School. Upon graduation, he joined the United States Armed Services, 101st Airborne Division. Once Reverend McCray returned home, he attended Palm Beach Junior College, which is now Palm Beach Community College. He received religious training from Palm Beach Atlantic University School of Theology.

Reverend McCray became an anchor in both the West Palm Beach community where he grew up and the Riviera Beach community where he moved once he married his wife of 47 years, Lillian. The couple has three sons. Reverend McCray and his family joined Greater Bethel Primitive Baptist Church and have remained members for more than 40 years. In 1992, Reverend McCray was ordained a Minister and has served as Assistant Pastor of Greater Bethel for more than 10 years. Under his leadership, the church has sponsored many ministries and provided services that deal with issues affecting the lives of people in all age groups.

As a former Supervisor of Sanitation for the City of Riviera Beach, Reverend McCray brought great changes to his community. In the State of Florida, he was the first and only African-American to hold this position. He was also the first African-American to be employed as a ticket agent for the Greyhound Bus Company.

In an effort to complement his professional achievements, Reverend McCray operated McCray's Barbeque Restaurant in Riviera Beach where he prepared and distributed—free of charge—dinners and other meals to the sick and shut-in, homeless, elderly and other disadvantaged individuals. He has also volunteered with incarcerated men and women by giving self-enhancement messages. For more than 47 years, Reverend McCray has been a member of the Youth of Recreation Association of Riviera Beach. During this time, he served as president of the organization. Working with the Imperial Men's Club, he organized the Young Entrepreneurs, teaching students from Suncoast High Community School the art of establishing their own business. Because Reverend McCray has been a driving force in the fight for civil and equal rights for citizens in Palm Beach County, he has been listed in Blacks in Social Change in the South by University of Florida Professor Jim Button. He was also elected to Palm Beach County Biracial Committee and the Riviera Beach City Council.

Moreover, Reverend McCray has received numerous awards and recognitions such as: Business Man of the Year from Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc.; the Westboro Business and Professional Women's Club; and Senior Citizen on the Year from the Martin Luther King Coordinating Committee.

Madam Speaker and my colleagues, I ask that you join me in honoring Reverend Herman C. McCray, Jr., a humble public servant, a true beacon of hope and a guiding light in the Palm Beach County community. He is an outstanding American worthy of our collective honor and appreciation. It is with deep respect and admiration that I commend Reverend McCray for dedicating his life to the community, and I thank him for his exceptional leadership.

RECOGNIZING THE 99TH NATIONAL DAY OF THE REPUBLIC OF CHINA

HON. STEVEN R. ROTHMAN

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 28, 2010

Mr. ROTHMAN of New Jersey. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize October 10, 2010 as the 99th National Day of the Republic of China. Taiwan's National Day, also known as Double Ten Day, celebrates the October 10, 1911 Wuchang Uprising. This uprising in the city of Wuchang was the beginning of the Xinhai Revolution, which led to the collapse of the imperial Qing Dynasty and the subsequent establishment of the Republic of China.

Double Ten Day is commemorated annually in Taiwan and across the globe, beginning with the raising of the flag of the Republic of China and followed by parades, festivals, and other celebrations. In my own state of New Jersey, the Double Tenth will be celebrated at a special event held on October 3, 2010 in Edison Township. I am proud to recognize this important holiday and express my continued support for a strong Taiwanese democracy.

Madam Speaker, today I would like to congratulate the Republic of China on its 99th National Day and offer my best wishes to Taiwan as it looks toward its centennial year!

RECOGNIZING UNIVERSITY OF THE OZARKS FOR ITS SPECIAL NEEDS PROGRAM

HON. JOHN BOOZMAN

OF ARKANSAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 28, 2010

Mr. BOOZMAN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize and congratulate the University of the Ozarks for its work with students with special needs.

The Clarksville, Arkansas university earned national attention and was named by Parade Magazine to its "College A-List" for its efforts to help college students with learning disabilities.

Established in 1971, the University of the Ozark's Jones Center was one of the first centers in the nation created to assist college students with learning disabilities or attention deficit/hyperactivity disorders. The center has a student to faculty rate of 4 to 1 which allows the center to provide students with the best services available so they can achieve the results they are capable of.

Jones Learning Center Director Linda Frost says this recognition confirms the dedication and commitment of staff to providing students with comprehensive support that allow all students to succeed.

This is a great honor for the staff and the students. Having such innovative leaders in the classroom provides an opportunity for all students to get the education they deserve. I am proud of the efforts of the Jones Learning Center and the University of the Ozarks and wish them success in the future as education leaders work to meet the needs of all students. I look forward to recognizing its future successes.

HONORING THE LIFE OF SERGEANT FIRST CLASS KRISTOPHER CHAPLEAU

HON. GEOFF DAVIS

OF KENTUCKY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 28, 2010

Mr. DAVIS of Kentucky. Madam Speaker, today I pay tribute to Sergeant First Class Kristopher Chapleau, from LaGrange, Kentucky, who lost his life on June 30, 2010, of injuries sustained at Forward Operating Base Blesing, Afghanistan.

He was assigned to the 1st Battalion, 327th Infantry Regiment, 1st Brigade Combat Team, 101st Airborne Division (Air Assault), Fort Campbell, Kentucky.

Sergeant First Class Chapleau was a thirteen year veteran infantryman and platoon leader who enlisted in the Army in 1997.

He was the beloved husband of Terry Chapleau and a father to four young children, Jacob, Tyler, Angelica and Kimberly.

Today, as we celebrate the life and accomplishments of this exceptional Kentuckian, my thoughts and prayers are with Sergeant First Class Chapleau's family and friends.

We are all deeply indebted to Sergeant First Class Kristopher Chapleau for his service and his sacrifice.
